- 5 1. Any person shall be qualified to be registered as a voter in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five who would have been so qualified if the provisions of the Representation of the People Act, 1884, respecting the household franchise, and respecting persons deemed to be inhabitant occupiers, and the entry of the names of persons on the rate book had been in force throughout the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and had been duly carried into effect; and where a rate has been made before the passing of this Act, the name of every such person if not entered in the rate book shall be added thereto, either in a separate column of the rate book, or in a separate list, or otherwise, as may be most convenient.
- 10 2. For the purposes of the household qualification created by the Representation of the People Act, 1884, separate rating of a dwelling-house, or part of a dwelling-house, separately occupied, shall not be necessary to entitle the inhabitant occupier of same to be registered as a voter in respect thereof.

vising barrister.

4. Where, on the revision of the list or lists of voters for any county, city, town, or borough in Ireland, the matter stated in a list or claim, or proved to the revising barrister in relation to any alleged right to be on any list, is, in the judgment of the revising barrister, insufficient in law to constitute a qualification of the nature or description stated or claimed, but sufficient in law to constitute a qualification of some other nature or description, the revising barrister, if the name is entered in a list for which such true qualification in law is appropriate, shall correct such entry by inserting such qualification accordingly, and in any other case shall insert the name with such qualification in the appropriate list, and shall expunge it from the other list, if any, in which it is entered, except as herein provided; and whether any person is objected to or not, no evidence shall be given of any other qualification than that which is described in the list or claim, as the case may be, nor shall the revising barrister be at liberty to change the description of the qualification as it appears in the list, except for the purpose of more clearly and accurately defining the same.

Chairman or Revising
Barrister refuses to state a case.
41 & 42 Vict.
c. 26, s. 57.

6. If any person feels aggrieved by the judge of a Revision Court neglecting or refusing to state any case in accordance with the enactments of the Registration Acts, he may within one month after such neglect or refusal apply to the High Court of Justice upon affidavit of the facts for a rule calling on the judge of the Revision Court, and also on the person, if any, in whose favour the decision from which the applicant desires to appeal was given, to show cause why a rule should not be made directing the appeal to be entertained and the case to be stated. And thereupon the High Court or any judge thereof may make such rule to show cause, and make the same absolute or discharge it with or without payment of costs as may seem just; and the judge of the Revision Court shall conform to any such rule if made absolute, and the case shall be stated and the appeal entertained and heard, notwithstanding any limitation of time or place contained in the Registration Acts.

Polling districts.

7.—(1.) For the purpose of dividing a county in Ireland into polling districts, and assigning polling places for such polling districts, in such manner as may be convenient for taking the votes

(3.) Not later than one month after the passing of this Act the Town Councils of the City of Dublin and the town of Belfast shall respectively take into consideration the division of the boroughs of Dublin and Belfast into polling districts, and shall respectively divide such boroughs anew into polling districts, in such manner as may be convenient for taking the votes of electors in accordance with the division of such boroughs into parliamentary constituencies; and so that every polling district may be wholly included in some one parliamentary constituency.

The said Town Councils may respectively from time to time alter any division into polling districts made by them under this Act, and shall respectively publish a description of the polling districts made by them under this Act, in such manner as they think fit.

(4.) If upon any revision under the Registration Acts it appears to the court that in any list the name of any person is by mistake inserted in one polling district instead of in another, the court shall correct such mistake; and with a view to making such correction, it shall be the duty of the court to compare every list presented for revision in a county or borough with the order for the time being in force dividing such county or borough into polling districts.

8. The Lord Lieutenant may, if he thinks it necessary, appoint one or more barrister or barristers, of not less than six years standing at the bar, to act with the chairman or revising barrister of any county or borough in revising the list of voters in such county or borough in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

In any county or borough in which more revision courts than 5 one are appointed to sit at the same time it shall be lawful for the clerk of the peace, with the approval of the Lord Chancellor, to nominate a person to attend before any of such courts other than that before which such clerk of the peace himself attends, and to discharge the duties imposed by law upon the clerk of the peace in 10 respect of such revision.

The person so appointed shall be paid, out of moneys to be provided by Parliament, such remuneration for his services as the Lord Chancellor, with the sanction of the Treasury, may determine.

Informalities
in registration shall not affect validity of register.

9. As regards the registers of voters to be made in the year one 15 thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, no election shall be questioned by reason of any error or informality whatsoever in relation to the forming, printing, publishing, revising, or completing the lists of voters, or the register of voters, for any county or borough, or by reason of any matter or thing not having been done 20 within the time limited by law for that purpose. c. 36, s. 6.

11. Any notice of objection given under sections twenty-six or thirty-six of the Parliamentary Voters (Ireland) Act, 1880, to any person on any list of claimants may be given according to the pro- 35 visions of either of those sections respectively; but, with that exception, no notice of objection given under the said Act to any person upon any list of voters shall be valid unless the ground or grounds of objection be specifically stated therein; and this provision shall be deemed to be sufficiently satisfied by naming the 40 column or columns of the register on which the objector grounds his objection, and any objection grounded upon any one of the said columns shall be deemed a separate ground of objection, and such notice may be according to the form in the schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like effect, in substitution for the forms numbered 6 (12) in Schedule (A.) and (15) in Schedule (B.) respectively to the Parliamentary Voters (Ireland) Act, 1850.

A.D. 1855.

12. No person objected to by a notice under the Parliamentary Voters (Ireland) Act, 1850, as amended by this Act, shall be required to give evidence before the county court judge, chairman, or revising barrister in support of his right to be registered otherwise than as such right is called in question in the ground or grounds of objection specified in the notice.

28 & 29 Vict.
c. 35, s. 7.

13. Every separate ground of objection in any notice given in accordance with this Act shall be treated by the county court judge, chairman, or revising barrister as a separate objection; and for every such ground of objection which, in the opinion of the county court judge, chairman, or revising barrister, has been groundlessly or frivolously and vexatiously stated, he shall, on the application of the person objected to, or anyone on his behalf, and upon the production of the notice of objection, award costs against the objector to the amount of at least two shillings and sixpence, and this though the name of the person objected to be expunged upon some other ground of objection stated in the same notice of objection.

Each ground of objection to be treated as a separate objection.
13 & 14 Vict.
c. 68, s. 62.
28 & 29 Vict.
c. 35, s. 8.

14. The sum ordered to be paid by way of costs shall not upon any one vote exceed the sum of five pounds, and the sixty-second section of the Parliamentary Voters (Ireland) Act, 1850, shall be read as if the words "five pounds" had been substituted therein for the words "twenty shillings."

Costs to be awarded not to exceed 5l.
28 & 29 Vict.
c. 35, s. 14.
13 & 14 Vict.
c. 68, s. 62.

15. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Parliamentary Voters (Ireland) Act, 1850, where any person whose name is on any list of voters for a county, city, town, or borough (not being a list of claimants) is duly objected to by some person other than the clerk of the peace, the clerk of the union, the poor rate collector, or the town clerk, the county court judge, chairman, or revising barrister, whether the person objected to does or does not appear before him, shall, before requiring it to be proved that the person objected to is entitled to have his name inserted in the list of voters for such county, city, town, or borough, or expunging such name, require prima facie proof to be given to his satisfaction of some ground of objection against such person, and, for the pur-

Proceedings on objections.

c. 68, s. 54.
41 & 42 Vict.
c. 25, s. 25.

A.D. 1883. — pose of determining whether such prima facie proof is satisfactory, shall examine the collectors of poor rates, clerk of the union, or any other person who may be present, touching the truth of the alleged ground of objection, and if such prima facie proof is not so given to his satisfaction he shall retain the name of the person objected to in the list of voters.

Power of revising barrister to summon witnesses.

16. A revising barrister may by summons under his hand require any person to attend at the court and give evidence or produce documents for the purpose of the revision; and any person who, after the tender to him of a reasonable amount for his expenses, falls so to attend, or who falls to answer any question put to him by the revising barrister in pursuance of this section, or to produce any document which he is required in pursuance of this section to produce, shall be liable to pay a fine not exceeding five pounds and not less than twenty shillings. Such fine may be imposed by the revising barrister at his discretion, and may be recovered in the same manner as any other fine imposed by the Parliamentary Registration (Ireland) Act, 1850, is now by law recoverable.

appeal.

17. The costs of an appellant against a decision of a revising barrister may, if the appeal is successful, be ordered by the court hearing the appeal to be paid by the clerk of the peace or town clerk named as respondent in the said appeal, whether he shall or shall not appear before the said court in support of the decision.

For enabling an appellant to obtain such an order he may, at or before the time of making his declaration of appeal under section fifty-eight of the Parliamentary Registration (Ireland) Act, 1850, require the revising barrister to name the clerk of the peace for the county, or the town clerk for the parliamentary borough or municipal borough, as the case may be, to which the appeal relates, to be respondent in the appeal.

The revising barrister, if so required, shall, and in any case may, name such clerk of the peace or town clerk, as the case may be, to be respondent in an appeal, either alone or in addition to any other person referred to in section fifty-nine of the Parliamentary Registration (Ireland) Act, 1850.

The expenses properly incurred by a clerk of the peace or town clerk as respondent, including any costs which he may be ordered to pay to the appellant in any such appeal, shall be allowed to him as part of the expenses incurred by him in respect of the revision of the list to which the appeal relates.

The costs of an appeal against a decision of a revising barrister shall be in the discretion of the court hearing the appeal.

18. The court shall, with respect to the lists of parliamentary voters which it is appointed to revise, perform the duties and have the powers following: A.D. 1833.

It shall expunge the name of every person, whether objected to or not, whose name or place of abode, or the nature of whose qualification, or the name or situation of whose qualifying property if the qualification is in respect of property, or any other particulars respecting whom by law required to be stated in the list, is or are either wholly omitted or in the judgment of the revising barrister insufficiently described for the purpose of being identified, unless the matter or matters so omitted or insufficiently described be supplied to the satisfaction of the court before it shall have completed the revision of the list in which the omission or insufficient description occurs, and in case such matter or matters shall be so supplied the court shall then and there insert the same in such list:

(6.) It shall expunge the name of every person, whether objected to or not, where it is proved to the revising barrister that such person was, on the twentieth day of July then next preceding, incapacitated by any law or statute from voting:

(8.) Subject as herein and otherwise by law provided, the court shall retain the name of every person not objected to, and also of every person objected to, unless the objector appears by himself or by some person on his behalf in support of his objection:

The prima facie proof shall be deemed to be given by the objector if it is shown to the satisfaction of the court by evidence, repute, or otherwise that there is reasonable ground for believing that the objection is well founded, and that by reason of 15 the person objected to not being present for examination, or for some other reason, the objector is prevented from discovering or proving the truth respecting the entry objected to:

- (10.) If such proof is given by the objector as herein prescribed, or if the objection is by a clerk of union, collector-general, town 20 clerk, or clerk of the peace, then unless the person objected to appears by himself or by some person on his behalf, and proves that he was entitled on the twentieth day of July then next preceding to have his name inserted in the list in respect of the qualification described in such list, the court of revision 25 shall expunge the name of the person objected to.

The Supplemental List of Ten Pounds Rated Occupiers.

3. You are also to make out, and, together with such copy of register for the said polling 15 district or division of the said polling district, transmit to me a supplemental list [Form 11] of every male person of full age not appearing already on such copy of register who shall be rated in the last rate made for the relief of the poor as the occupier of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments situate within your union, and in the said polling district, or in your division of the said polling district, as the case may be, of a net annual value of 20 ten pounds or upwards; but you are to exclude, nevertheless, from such supplemental list every such occupier who shall not, on or before the first day of July in this year, have paid all poor rates (if any) which shall have become payable by him in respect of such premises previously to the first day of January last; and you are required, after due inquiry, which you are required to make, with the assistance of the respective 25 collectors of poor rates as aforesaid, to enter objections, by adding in the margin the word "objected" or "dead," as the case may be, before the names of persons in such supplemental list contained, and not entitled to be on the register next to be made, in like manner in all respects as herein-before directed and required with regard to the copy of register of such polling district or division of a polling district, and the names therein 30 contained; and such supplemental list shall be in the form and shall contain the particulars mentioned in the form (No. 11) herewith sent, and shall be signed and verified by you.

If two or more persons, jointly, are such occupiers as above mentioned, and the clear yearly value of the land or tenement is such as to give ten pounds or more for each 35 occupier, two of such occupiers are entitled to be registered as voters; but no more are (b.) Note (b).—If the polling district is divided so as to be in more than one union, each clerk of a union in which any such division of the polling district lies is to deal with the copy of the register and the names of persons and premises contained therein (so far as relates to such division only of such polling district) in like manner in all respects as required in the case of a polling district not divided, save that he is to deal only with what relates to his own division of the polling district; in like manner he is to make out the supplemental list only for his own division 40 of the polling district.

In every year after 1885, 184. must be substituted for 181. where the last-mentioned sum is specified in this prospect. But inasmuch as the existing register which came into force on the 1st January 1885 relates to a 12th rated occupation franchise, the paragraphs of this prospect referring to the existing register must not be changed 45 until 1888.

so entitled (unless they derived the property by descent, succession, marriage, marriage settlement, or devise, or) unless they are bona fide engaged as partners carrying on trade or business thereon, in any of which cases all may be registered, if the clear yearly value is sufficient to give ten pounds for each occupier.

- 5 If a person has occupied different lands or tenements in the county of the requisite value in immediate succession during the said twelve months, he is entitled in respect of the occupation thereof to be registered as a voter in the polling district in which the last occupied land or tenement is situate, provided that he has paid, on or before the first day of July, all poor rates in respect of all such premises so occupied in succession which 10 has become payable by him prior to the first day of January preceeding.

The Supplemental List of Householders.

4. You are also to make out and transmit to me another supplemental list [Form 12] of every male person of full age, not appearing already on the register, who is, on the first day of July in this year, and has during the whole of the period commencing on the 15 twentieth day of July previous to such first of July, been an inhabitant occupier as owner or tenant of any dwelling-house within your union, and in the said polling district, or in your division of it.

You shall exclude from such list persons who are joint occupiers as tenants or owners of any dwelling-house.

- 20 You shall also exclude from such list the occupier of any dwelling-house in respect of which all poor rates due on the first day of January have not been paid, either by the owner or by the occupier, of such dwelling-house, on or before the first day of July, but you shall not exclude from such list the occupier of a dwelling-house which by reason of its belonging to or being occupied on behalf of the Crown, or by reason of any other ground 25 of exemption, is not rated.

You shall not exclude any person from such list by reason only that such person has during a part of the period commencing on the twentieth day of July prior to the making of such list, not exceeding four months in the whole, by letting or otherwise, allowed the premises to be occupied as a furnished house by some other person.

- 30 Different premises occupied in immediate succession by any person qualify such person to be included in such list.

- The term "dwelling-house" in this precept includes any part of a house, where that part is separately occupied as a dwelling. Where an occupier is entitled to the sole and exclusive use of any part of a house, that part shall not be deemed to be occupied, 35 otherwise than separately, by reason only that the occupier is entitled to the joint use of some other part.

- Where a man himself inhabits any dwelling-house by virtue of any office, service, or employment, and the dwelling-house is not inhabited by any person under whom such man serves in such office, service, or employment, he shall be deemed to be an inhabitant 40 occupier of such dwelling-house as a tenant.

You are to add "objected" before the names of persons in such supplemental list of householders, and not entitled to be on the register next to be made, in accordance with the Representation of the People Act, 1884.

- Such supplemental list of householders shall be in the form, and shall contain the 45 particulars mentioned in the Form No. 12, herewith sent, and shall be signed and verified by you.

In case any name of an inhabitant householder appears also in the supplemental list of rated occupiers, you shall make a note of the fact in the margin.

General Provisions.

5. Such copy of the register and both such supplemental lists shall be signed by you, and shall be verified by you as true and correct, according to the best of your belief, by an oath to be taken or made by you before some justice of the peace for the said county within which such lands or dwelling house are situate, or the county in which your union workhouse is situate, and which oath any such justice is authorised and required to administer, and to certify at the foot of such lists the taking of such oath.

You are to return the said copy of the register for the said polling district, or your division of the said polling district, with all such marginal additions as aforesaid so verified, and also therewith to transmit the said supplemental lists for the said polling district, or for your division of the said polling district, with all such marginal additions thereto as aforesaid so verified, to me the clerk of the peace, at my office as aforesaid, on or before the eighth day of July in this year.

You are required to allow to any person on the list of voters of the county inspection of the rate books, and to make extracts therefrom during the periods prescribed by the statute.

You are required to notify to the respective collectors or their deputies to attend at a place in each polling district, on the days appointed by the statute for receiving payment of poor rates, and to give public notice of such days and places, and also to require them to return to you lists of such payments as required by the statute, subject to the penalties therein.

You, or a sufficient deputy, to be appointed by you, are or is to attend the court to be holden by the county court judge and chairman of quarter sessions for the county of _____ in which the said polling district lies (of the time and place of holding which notice will be sent to you), and there to have for his inspection the rate books or copies of the parts thereof relating to premises within the said polling district, or your division thereof.

Herein if you fail you will be liable to the penalties in that case provided.

Given under my hand, this day of

NOTE.—The paragraphs of this prospect which relate to the existing register must be modified in all years subsequent to 1883, by making them apply to a 10*l*. rated occupation franchise instead of a 12*l*. rated occupation franchise; and by making them apply (so far as regards the marginal additions "objected" or "disd") to householders on the then existing register.

FORMS FOR BOROUGH.

FORM No. 13.

PRECEPT OF THE CLERK OF THE PEACE TO THE TOWN CLERK.

5 Parliamentary borough of _____ in the county of _____ to wit.
 To the town clerk [or clerk of the town commissioners, &c. &c., as the case may be] of the borough of _____

In pursuance of the provisions of the Act of Parliament of the 13 & 14 Vict. c. 63, and of the Representation of the People Act, 1884 (48 Vict. c. 3), and of the other Acts 10 relating to the registration of parliamentary voters, I require your attention to the following instructions:

This precept is to be read distributively, and to apply to every division of a borough constituting a separate constituency.

Notice of Rates in Arrear.

15 1. On or before the [fifth day of June] you are to publish a notice, signed by you, according to the Form marked No. 14, among the printed forms herewith sent.

The manner in which you are required to publish that notice, and also the lists hereinafter mentioned, is as follows: (that is to say,) you are to fix one of the printed copies (each copy being first signed by you) in some public and conspicuous situation on 20 the outside of the outer door or on the outer wall near the door of the town hall, or if there should be no town hall, then in some public and conspicuous situation in this borough, heretofore used for posting public notices, and it must remain there during a period including two Sundays at least.

Lists to be made by the Town Clerk.

25 2. On or before the [twentieth day of July] you are to make out alphabetical lists of all persons who shall be entitled to vote in the election of a member to serve in Parliament for this borough; that is to say, first, an alphabetical list, according to the Form (numbered 17), herewith sent, of all such male persons of full age as shall appear on the list transmitted to you by the clerk of the union in this year as the rated
 30 occupier or one of several rated joint occupiers of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, situate within this borough, of the net annual value of ten pounds or upwards (or, in the case of joint occupiers, ten pounds or upwards for each such joint occupier), and also of all male persons of full age as shall appear in the other list transmitted to you by the clerk of the union in this year as entitled to be registered as inhabitant
 35 occupiers, as owners or tenants, of dwelling-houses in the borough under the household qualification, created by the Representation of the People Act, 1884; and another alphabetical list, according to the Form (numbered 18), herewith sent, of all other persons (except persons on the freemen's roll) who shall be entitled to vote for such borough by virtue of any other right whatsoever; and another alphabetical list, 40 according to the Form (numbered 19), herewith sent, of all persons on the freemen's roll who shall be entitled to vote in the election for such borough.

Omissions from Lists.

3. You are to omit from the rated occupiers in such first-mentioned list (marked No. 17) all such persons as shall not have paid, on or before the [first day of July] then next preceding, all poor rates payable by them severally, if any, in respect of such premises previously to the [first day of January] then next preceding; and you are to omit from the list of inhabitant householders, the occupier of any dwelling-house in respect of which all poor rates due on the first day of January has not been paid either by the owner or the occupier of such dwelling-house on or before the first day of July; and you are in like manner to omit from the two last-mentioned lists (marked No. 18 and No. 19) all such forty shilling freeholders, freemen, and others, entitled to vote by any right to the enjoyment of which residence is by law required, as shall not have resided for six calendar months next previous to the said [twentieth day of July] in this year within the said borough, or within seven statute miles of the usual place of election therein.

4. You are to add, with a stamp or in writing, the word "objected" to the name of any person inserted in such first-mentioned list (marked No. 17), in case you shall have reasonable cause to believe such person not to be, or to have ceased to be, occupier or joint occupier of the premises in respect of which he shall have been rated, or not to have been such occupier or joint occupier for the space of twelve calendar months next previous to such [twentieth day of July]; you are also to add the word "objected" to the name of any person inserted whose qualification is a household qualification, in case you shall have reasonable cause to believe such person not to be, or to have ceased to be, an inhabitant occupier of a dwelling-house, or not to have been such inhabitant occupier for the space of twelve calendar months next previous to the twentieth day of July; and you are in every succeeding year to add in like manner the word "objected" to the name of every person whose qualification appearing on the copy of register shall be the occupation or joint occupation of premises of the net annual value of ten pounds or upwards, or (in the case of joint occupation) ten pounds or upwards for each such joint occupier, or whose qualification shall be a household qualification, and who shall not appear in either of the lists transmitted to you by the clerk of such union in such year; and you are also in every year to add in like manner the word "objected" or "dead" before the name of any person contained in such lists of voters or copy of register delivered to you by the clerk of the peace as aforesaid, if you have reasonable cause to believe that such person is not entitled to have his name on the register then next to be made, or is dead, as the case may be.

5. In each of the said lists Nos. 17, 18, and 19, to be made out by you, the Christian name and surnames of every such person must be written at full length, together with the place of his abode and the nature of his qualification; and where any person shall be entitled to vote in respect of any property in lands, tenements, or hereditaments, then the name of the street, lane, and the number of the house (if any), or other description of the place where such property may be situate, shall be specified in the list; and you shall sign such lists marked Nos. 17, 18, and 19, and shall forthwith cause a sufficient number of copies of the said lists, with all such marginal additions, to be written or printed.

Publication of Lists.

- 5     6. You are to publish, in the manner herein-before mentioned with regard to notices, copies of the said lists Nos. 17, 18, and 19, signed by you, on or before the [twenty-second day of July] in this year.

7. You are, on or before the [eleventh day of August], to make out and to publish,
10 in manner aforesaid, lists according to the forms numbered 21, 22, and 23, containing the name of every person who shall have given or have caused to be given to you, on or before the [fourth day of August] his claim to have his name inserted in any list; but if you have reasonable cause to believe that any person whose name shall appear in such lists of claimants is not entitled to have his name upon the register then next
15 to be made, you are to add in like manner the word "objected" before the name of every such person on the margin of such list of claimants; you are also to make out other lists, according to the forms numbered 26, 27, and 28, containing the name of every person against whom a notice of objection shall have been given to you, on or before the [twentieth day of August], as not being entitled to have his name retained
20 in any list for your borough; and on or before the [twenty-fourth day of August] you are to sign and publish each of such last-mentioned lists on some public and conspicuous situation on the outside of the outer door or on the outer wall near the door of the town hall, or if there be no town hall, then on such other place as aforesaid in the same manner as before mentioned with regard to the notices.

25     Copies of Lists to be kept for Inspection.

8. You are to keep a copy of these lists, signed by you, and you are to allow the same, and also the notices of objection, to be perused by any person, without payment of any fee, at any time between the hours of ten of the clock in the forenoon and four of the clock in the afternoon of any day, except Sunday, during the first fourteen days
30 after the said lists shall have been published, and you are to deliver a copy of each of such lists to any person requiring the same, on the payment of a price for each copy after the rate contained in the Table marked No. 29, herewith sent.

- If you shall find any such notice, list, or other document published by you as aforesaid to be destroyed, mutilated, effaced, or removed, you are forthwith to place another in its 35 room to the same effect.

Returns to be made to the Clerk of the Peace.

9. On or before the [twenty-fifth day of August] you are to deliver to me copies of the said lists of voters so made out by you, with the marginal additions as aforesaid, copies of the lists of claimants, and copies of the lists of persons objected to, so respectively made out and signed by you as aforesaid, together with the copy of the register.

10. You shall exclude from every list of inhabitant householders persons who are joint occupiers as tenants or owners of any dwelling-house.

You shall also exclude from such list the occupier of any dwelling-house in respect of which all poor rates due on the first day of January have not been paid, either by the owner or by the occupier, of such dwelling-house on or before the first day of July, but you shall not exclude from such list the occupier of a dwelling-house which by reason of its belonging to or being occupied on behalf of the Crown, or by reason of any other ground of exemption, is not rated.

You shall not exclude any person from such list by reason only that such person has, during a part of the qualifying period, not exceeding four months in the whole, by letting or otherwise, allowed the premises to be occupied as a furnished house by some other person.

The term "dwelling-house" in this precept includes any part of a house, where that part is separately occupied as a dwelling. Where an occupier is entitled to the sole and exclusive use of any part of a house, that part shall not be deemed to be occupied, otherwise than separately, by reason only that the occupier is entitled to the joint use of some other part.

Where a man himself inhabits any dwelling-house by virtue of any office, service, or employment, and the dwelling-house is not inhabited by any person under whom such man serves in such office, service, or employment, he shall be deemed to be an inhabitant occupier of such dwelling-house as a tenant.

Attendance in Revision Court.

11. You are to attend the court to be holden for the revision of the list of voters for your borough, of the time of holding which notice will be given; and at the opening of such court you are there to deliver to the county court judge [or barrister, as the case may be], before whom the same shall be holden, the several lists made out by you, with the marginal additions as aforesaid, and signed by you, and the original notices of objection and the original notices of claims given to you, together with the list transmitted to you by the clerk of the union in this year.

Herein if you fail you will be liable to the penalties in that case provided. Given under my hand this day of one thousand eight hundred and
